

Housing projects for economically weaker sections

3087. SHRI R.S. GAVAI: Will the Minister of URBAN DEVELOPMENT AND POVERTY ALLEVIATION be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government have reviewed the performance of the States in the implementation of the housing projects for economically weaker sections under the 20-Point Programme for mega cities;

(b) if so, the details thereof;

(c) the financial assistance provided by Government for completion of E.W.S. and L.I.G. housing projects during 1999-2000 and 2000-2001; and

(d) the action proposed against States lagging behind in implementation of projects?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF URBAN DEVELOPMENT AND POVERTY ALLEVIATION (SHRI BANDARU DATTATRAYA): (a) and (b) Only State-wise review of implementation of the Housing programmes for economically weaker section under Point No. 14(d) of the 20-Point Programme is done on half-yearly and annual basis. A statement on First Half Yearly Progress Report for April-September, 99 is attached as Statement (See below).

(c) Housing being a State subject, the Central Government does not allocate any funds for implementation of the housing programme under Point No. 14(d)-EWS Houses and Point No. 14(e)—LIG Houses. The State Governments are implementing these programmes as per their plan priorities and need.

However, HUDCO provides financial assistance to facilitate the construction of houses for EWS and LIG categories under the 2 million housing programme. The details of loans sanctioned for construction of EWS and LIG houses for the year 1999-2000 and 2000-2001 (upto 30th June, 2000) are as under:—

Year	Category	Amount (in crore)
1999-2000	EWS	716.73
2000-2001 (upto 30.6.2000)	-do-	3.51
1999-2000	LIG	333.87
2000-2001 (upto 30.6.2000)	-do-	52.37

(d) As per the Half Yearly Progress Report for April-September, 1999, the States which recorded low achievement of targets fixed for Point Nos. 14(d) — EWS House and 14(e) — LIG Houses, have already been requested to improve the performance of these programmes.
